

As part of the Aspretto global hot beverage brand for Sodexo, the 'Grace the Table' or the 'Stealth Tray' as it became known was a unique meeting room / conference table solution. The tray provided a practical delivery system of tea and coffee complete with all necessary condiments and equipment in a single drop off to the room. It's design lent a sense of ceremony to the occasion right down to the biscuit platter and milk stand. Reflecting the brands strong environmental principles it was manufactured in recycled plastics and could itself be recycled at the end of its useful life. With removable dividers, saucer supports, integral drip tray and waste bin it offered considerable flexibility.
